12. [REDACTED] Mr. Paul Karody, in the office of Senator Stephen Young (D., Ohio), called to determine what the Agency response was to press allegations that RFE was subsidized by this Agency. I explained the Agency no comment policy and reviewed with him the official statements made by Government spokesmen starting with the National Student Association confirmation up through the appointment of the Rusk Committee. Mr. Karody asked if he could have the newspaper clippings on this and I said we would be glad to provide them. This entire discussion centered on what was in the "public domain" and I surmised that Karody is working on this in connection with a constituent request.
